ABOUT THE SECRETARIAT FESTIVAL: Conceived as a way to honor America's most famous racehorse, the annual Bourbon County Secretariat Festival not only showcases the 1973 Triple Crown winner's career on the track but also his stallion days as the premier attraction at Claiborne Farm, the nearby historic horse farm where Big Red spent the majority of his life. The Festival offers an entertaining equine-related festival experience for the whole family featuring a variety of horse demonstrations and events, archival racing films, merchandise booths and exhibits, regional food and entertainment, celebrity autograph signing, and culminating with the second annual Secretariat Look-Alike Contest. The Bourbon County Secretariat Festival provides funding and recognition for many charitable causes including equine research and rehabilitation while celebrating the legacy of Secretariat, Horse of the Century.

As part of the Festival's event schedule, the Secretariat Big Red Run/Walk course will begin and end at the Bourbon County Fairgrounds. Participants will travel along Main Street through scenic downtown Paris and pass by some of the loveliest historic homes and pastoral settings in the heart of horse country.
